Dear Henri:

Thanks for your December 19th letter.

I was interested to get your reaction to the APPALACHIAN SPRING score. I recently o.k.ed a version of the complete ballet recording for Columbia Records and I imagine they will be issuing it soon. Naturally, in making that available, I didn't mean to undermine performances of the Suite.

Thank you for inviting me to do an all-A.C. program sometime next season. If you are able to wait for a definite decision, perhaps you could hold off on the Jan. 5 and March 22 dates in '75. My acceptance would depend upon a number of factors which are still pending.

Friendly greetings and a good New Year to you....

As ever,

Mr. Henri Temianka
